

Most clients want to be able to decide how their wealth is distributed and to whom it is dispersed when they die. Without a solid estate plan in place, costs such as state and federal estate taxes can eat away a large portion of the legacy you have worked so hard to build. Make sure you have a flexible estate distribution plan in place.

